Correspondence of the Janesville Gazette.
From the Army, of the Cumberland.

SIGNAL CORPS AT FORT MONROE, GEORGIA, Dec. 27, 1863.

EDITH'S GAZETTE.—Winter is upon us at last with all his accompanying mud, rain, fog and wind demons. The wind whistles dolefully without this evening. I can hardly remain outside of my tent long enough to take a hurried look at the four stations we watch from here. I am well clothed. I cannot see how our brave boys who have drawn no winter clothes yet can remain all night on picket when the wind cuts like a knife. Such nights as this, half rain, poor clothes, worse shoes, like-warm friends, and backbiting copperheads try ones determination to remain in the army until the war is ended. Severe as the ordeal has been, through which this army has passed, and is now passing, I hear no grumbling, hear no sighs of regret because the men volunteered to serve the country.
I see no weak-kneed ones who would now turn back, and let the priceless gem be lost, but to the contrary very many are enlisting again, and many more would enlist could they but go home to their families for a few weeks before enlisting, and be sure they would not suffer.

The work on the railroad between here and Bridgeport, is being pushed ahead with great rapidity. When that is done so our supplies, and the vast quantity of express matter now awaiting us at Stevenson, can be brought up here, we will smile at old winter's rage, and face the freezing blast.

There has been a general stampede among the darkies around here for the army. Teamsters and servants have been leaving almost on masses for the places where blue coats with brass buttons were to be had. They have concluded that carrying a musket is better business than dragging through the mud with a mule team, or being kicked about by every one who comes along. I am glad to see them take this move. There are a plenty of soldiers (Heaven save the name) for teamsters, cooks, servants, and hostlers, who are not worth one straw in the line. They are the very men, or rather beings, who create panics, riots, and stampedes, where the battle rages hot.

Some of our party were down to the battle field of Chickamauga not many days since. They confirm the report that our brave lads who fell there were denied burial by the inhuman villains who are the friends, and party brothers of Palmer, and all his supporters. There is a specimen of southern chivalry.

WHAT IT COSTS.—The election of an abolition president has cost the nation a million and a half of lives, three thousand millions of dollars, and the end is not yet.

—Madison Patriot.

The cost of this expensive luxury antedates the Patriot's time. The war, with its immense cost in lives and money, which the Patriot of course greatly overstates, was entailed upon the country by Buchanan's lovely administration.

RE-ENLISTMENTS IN THE 13TH REGI-MENT.—A letter from Camp Bigney, near Nashville, dated Dec. 18th, to the Nashville Union, says:

Capt. Newton H. Kingman of the 13th Wisconsin Infantry Volunteers, has been appointed as veteran recruiting officer for his regiment and stationed at this post. One hundred of its members have already re-enlisted, and from present indications the greater part of the regiment will be added to the number before another week passes.

"The boys say they enlisted to assist in putting down the rebellion, and if three years are not sufficient, they are willing to stay five or more, if necessary. All honor to the brave."

SPRING ROBBERY.—A heavy stage robbery took place last week Sunday night, between St. Paul and LaCrosse. Some parties in St. Paul are organizing a National Bank, and were sending $35,000 in United States bonds to Washington by Franklin Steel. They were placed in the trunk and strapped on the back of the stage. A few miles this side of Lake City, the trunk was cut off from the stage, and no trace of it has yet been found. The robbery took place about nine o'clock in the evening. Two men have been arrested at Lake City on suspicion.

CLERGYMEN.—On the proposition to exempt clergymen from the operation of the conscription, the vote in the senate was aye six, and noes thirty-three. Doubtless, of our own state, voted for the proposition.

DEATH OF AN EDITOR.—August Kruer, at one time State Librarian, and connected for a time with the German press of Milwaukee and Madison, died at St. Louis on the 21st.

THE DRAFT.—The Grant County Herald says that the draft in that district has been postponed to January 15th, and that the time for perfecting the enrollment lists has been extended to January 5th.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

From Panama to Grow Wing the mails are carried by dog trains. A regular dog train consists of three dogs driven tandem, the half breed driver trotting along behind most of the way, yet they go forty to fifty miles per day.

In a report of the proceedings of the Agricultural or farmer's meeting at Springfield, we find this astounding statement:
"A man who gives 113 bushels of Dutton corn per acre, had ears from twelve to fifteen inches in length."

Cars on the St. Paul and Pacific railroad ran to Omaha, Christmas day, but the formal opening will not take place until next month.

The war department has refused to grant the request to establish a military hospital at Winona, owing to its inaccessibility during the winter.

The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says: "The widow of senator Douglas is at present in this city, engaged by secretary Chase as a clerk in the treasury department. She is seldom seen in public."

Three soldiers at Nashville, ill with the small pox, were being taken in a hack to the pest-house a few days since, when the negro driver found out their complaint, and immediately ran off. One of the soldiers then took the reins off, being unacquainted with the ford, drove the horses off an embankment into deep water and was drowned, together with the other men and the horses.

The latest wrinkle in this age of novelties, is a new fashioned tea and coffee-cup, invented for the benefit of gentlemen with heavy mustaches. It is contrived in such a manner that the most savage-phizened military man may imbibe without immer-sing the delight of his sweetheart in the drink.

Since Quantrell's raid, only three months ago, about one hundred and fifty houses have been erected in Lawrence, the best bridge in the state has been built, and other improvements commenced, which were not thought of before.

The great Lindell Hotel, at St. Louis, cost $750,000, has been sold to Henry Ames & Co., for $400,000.

dicted, because the gulf stream is several hundred miles nearer the coast than usual.

There is not a cotton spindle in motion at Lowell, Mass. The business has been prostrated by the war.

The New York pickpockets are using chloroform in their operations, and the victims, after returning to consciousness, always find themselves relieved of their money.

ago exhibited in the marauds, died recently of consumption at Yarmouth, England, having dwindled away almost to a skeleton.

Among the novelties of trade is the receipt of tobacco, in the New Orleans market, from Connecticut.

There is a place in New Brunswick called "Skidaddlers Ridge." It is where something or other have gone to avoid wearing uniforms.

"Greens" are high this year. The smallest evergreen now sells in New York for two or three shillings, and large trees bring from $10 to $50, while evergreen trees worth from six cents to a shilling a yard. But people will trim up in spite of high prices, and the evergreen business was never so brisk as now.

In a recent speech at Omaha, Nebraska, George Francis Train declared himself
"the best played out man in the country."

Train is really growing sensible.

A man who had been fined several weeks in succession for getting drunk, coolly proposed to the judge that he should take him by the year at a reduced rate.

The rebel iron blockade-runner Cheatham was captured by the gunboat Harriet, about December 1st, in DeJoy Sound, Ga., while attempting to run to sea with a cargo of cotton, tobacco, resin, etc.

The Cleveland & Columbus railroad company propose to donate $10,000 for the relief of soldiers' families, and it is believed that the other railroad companies in Ohio will follow their example.

The Portland Argus says that "an infant child was placed in a box with an inhuman mother, and left on the door step of one of our citizens Saturday evening.
A boy 'indifferently honest' passing by, concluded he would 'confess' said hand-box. He seized it and conveyed it home, but great was his horror when he discovered its contents. The 'wail' is alive and kicking, and has been conveyed to the almshouse."

Walter Joy, Esq., one of the oldest and most prominent business men of Buffalo, died in that city on Wednesday evening.
An hour before his death he was enjoying himself at a social gathering at the house of a friend. He probably died of disease of the heart.

The Indiana state Union convention will be held on the 22d and 23d of February. A candidate for governor and state officers and delegates to the national Union convention, will then be nominated.

Bills are to be reported to the present congress to bring Utah, Nebraska and Colorado into the Union as states.

War meetings are holding in the larger towns of Kentucky to devise some means by which the draft may be avoided.

Throughout Indiana, town, city and ward meetings are being extensively held to raise the quota of troops without the draft.

A patriotic old lady recently sent three smoking caps as presents to officers in the Potomac army. One for Gen. Meade, and the remaining two she desired to be presented to two generals, one of whom must be a teetotaler, and the other to one who never indulges in potting. Gen. Williams, chief of Gen. Meade's staff, took the Anti-Profanity Cap, and Gen. Hunt the Temperance Cap.

A church in France was lately struck by lightning, and when the attendant opened the church in the morning he found all the candles lighted and blazing away as if celebrating a grand mass.

A queer mistake was made by the military authorities lately, in conferring a brigadier generalship on Colonel S. A. Rice, of the 33d Iowa infantry, which was intended for his brother, Colonel B. W. Rice. The colonel commissioned discharged the duties of brigadier general until the blunder was discovered, when he resigned, and is now practically out of the service.

Sleights are being used on the street railways in Hartford, Connecticut. They are very pretty vehicles, not large, and will seat perhaps twenty. They are built in the outer style.

The deaths in Boston last week numbered one hundred and four.

Leavenworth, Kansas, is said to be growing more rapidly than any town in the west. It now has a population of between fifty and twenty thousand.

The freedom convention appointed for the 8th of January, at Louisville, has been deferred to sometime in the month of February or March. This convention will represent the radical unionists of the north, and will be one of the most important bodies, if not the most important, that can come together in the present crisis.

heaven, then God will bow the heavens and come down to their prayers.

Last Night's Report.

St. John's, N. B. Dec. 28.

Collins and McKenna, two of the Chesapeake pirates, were arrested and brought before the police magistrate to-day. On application of their counsel the examination was postponed for a week.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.

Advices from the army of the Potomac state that all is quiet along the line.
Nothing worthy of note is transpiring.
It is reported that nine oyster boats, mostly belonging to Philadelphia, while dredging for oysters near Potomac Creek, York River, were captured by the rebels. They came out in boats on pretense of helping make the cargoes, boarded two boats, seized their crew, robbed them of all valuables, then sent them to Richmond, and burned the vessels. The crews numbered about six to eight men to each vessel. Potomac Creek is about thirty miles above the mouth of the river.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.

Special to Post.—A large contraband mail has been captured in Baltimore just as it was about to start for Richmond.
Several persons of prominence are implicated.

The confiscation act is executed with great vigor in this district. New cases of seizures of property occur daily.

NEWARK, N. C., Dec. 28.

The new oath of allegiance has been administered to a number of rebel officers and soldiers who have recently come into our lines to accept the pardon offered by the president. They bring intelligence that a large number are like situated, who intend to do likewise at the earliest opportunity.

The plan of leasing out the abandoned plantations in Eastern Carolina, adopted by Hon. David Heston, supervising agent of the treasury department, is proving a great success to the treasury department, and also a great benefit to the laboring classes of both colors, who are soon to present Mr. Heston with a beautiful testimonial.

Colored troops and their officers, in conducting the exchange, will be placed on an equal footing with other troops, and so of colored men in civil employment. This is one of the points hereafter to be adjusted.
The honor and dignity of the government in the protection of such negro persons and their officers will not be compromised.
The recent visit of Gen. Hancock to Fort Monroe, was to confer with Gen. Butler, and to communicate to him the orders of our government on this subject. The object is to secure the exchange of an equal number of prisoners on each side, leaving all other questions for future determination. The excess being largely in our favor.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.

The Richmond Inquirer of the 27th inst.
says our government has abandoned every point, with the exception of the treatment of negro prisoners. Now the simple truth is our government has not abandoned any point. It is known that Maj. Gen.
Butler, who has superseded General Meredith, has no such instructions. The prisoners at Fort Norfolk, McHenry and Point Lookout have been placed under his orders, and he is authorized to conduct the exchange, men for men and officer for officer of equal rank with those paroled and sent home by himself. The object is to make an even exchange as far as the prisoners in the rebel's possession will admit and is governed by the rule of humanity. The effort will be made first to procure the release of those who have for the longest time been held as prisoners.

PORT MONROE, Dec. 28.

A flag of truce from City Point arrived here with 500 Union prisoners in exchange for those sent up by Gen. Butler.
The rebel government refuses any further exchange. All the questions are giving up about which our government has been contending, as their laws with regard to officers and soldiers in negro regiments are organized.

They also refuse to receive flags of truce from Gen. Butler, or negotiate with him on the subject of exchange because of Jeff.
Davis' proclamation, outlawing Gen. Butler, last year.

It will be remembered they were quite willing to receive medicines from and to correspond with him, notwithstanding the proclamation, which they now make a pretext for discontinuing negotiations, and they have already exchanged over 500 prisoners with Gen. Butler.

The Richmond Examiner of to-day contains the following dispatches:

CHARLESTON, Dec. 28.—The enemy commenced shelling the city last night, keeping up a steady fire which is still going on at 9 A. M.

A fire broke out at two o'clock, destroying ten or twelve buildings and causing a few casualties.

Heavy firing was heard in the direction of Stono, which is believed to be an attack on our batteries by the enemy's gunboats.

Scouts report 200 Yankees at Camberland, about two miles south of that place, and a similar force south of that place.

CHARLESTON, Dec. 26.—From Thursday night to 4 o'clock the next afternoon 130 shells were thrown into the city. The enemy fired five guns—three from Gregg, one from Cummings' Point and one from the military battery.

The engagement on Johnston's Island, between our light batteries and the enemy's gunboats, resulted in a drawn fight. Few casualties.

CHARLESTON, Dec. 27.—The enemy fired 26 shells at the city last night. No firing from Morris Island. To-day our batteries kept up a vigorous fire on their working parties, who are erecting another battery at the extreme end of Cummings' Point.

Our loss at Stono was one killed and five wounded.

The shelling of the city continued today; one white man was mortally and one white woman slightly wounded.

Three women were badly wounded by the falling walls of burning buildings, and eight or nine slightly wounded.

All quiet at Sumter.

DALTON, Ga., Dec. 27.

General Joseph E. Johnson assumes command of the army of Tennessee to-day.

To-Day's Report.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

MORNING DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.

Times dispatch.—Officers from the front to-night, say that a small rebel cavalry force held the north bank of the Rapidan at Ra-cineford. Our forces occupy Cedar mountain. There was a little skirmishing Saturday, occasioned it is supposed by our army extending its picket line on the right.
The rebel army has gone into winter quarters between Gordonsville and Orange Court House.

Gen. Ingalls, chief quartermaster, and Col. Clark, chief commissary of the army of the Potomac, were to-day relieved.
Gen. Ingalls' successor is not yet reported. Col. Clark is ordered to New York. Major Wilson takes his place. The exigencies of the public service require this change. Army officers are much required.

General Casseye heard is at work examining candidates, but is unable to supply the demand; sixty captains and lieutenants are wanted immediately, one hundred and fifty would be required in the next two weeks if they could be obtained.

Out of eight hundred horses sent to General Butler from New York for cavalry service in his department, seven hundred were condemned as worthless.

Investigations into the affairs of the quarter master's department at Alexandria are still progressing, and the old capitol walls are almost certain to contain some of the parties implicated in the recent frauds.
Contractors come in for a full share of the penalties.

Maj. Nelson H. Davis, assistant inspector general of the United States army, late of the army of the Potomac, has been announced as inspector general of the department of New Mexico.

Monte, Dec. 24.—Two white regiments sent down to Fort Jackson, had not recovered the fort, and were fighting on Saturday.

The Richmond papers are gloomy over the effect of Averill's raid.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 29.

The City Council, yesterday, passed resolutions authorizing the construction of a railroad track through the streets, connecting with the Little Miami and Indianapolis, Cincinnati railroads. Cash receipts Sanitary Fair, up to Monday, nearly $85,000.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch contains the following: Chief Justice Taney is lying at the point of death.

The Tribune learns that the United States steamer Huron captured an old river steamer with 300 bales of cotton, valued at $100,000, while attempting to run the blockade below Charleston.

The expedition planned by Gen. Gilmore for attacking Savannah was abandoned in consequence of the return of the rebel troops, who had been sent to Gregg's assistance. Several expeditions are about, from which good results are anticipated.

The steamer Hibiscus, from Southampton the 16th has arrived. No news.

The steamship Rancocas from Havana the 23d, and the Tubal Cain from St. Domingo the 18th, have arrived here. The rebellion at St. Domingo is still progressing. There are about 3,000 Spanish troops but they cannot penetrate into the interior on account of bad roads and guerrillas.
The Spanish war steamer Arco was burned at Canary Island, causing a total loss of large quantities of stores, muskets, tents, &c.

THE WEENAWKEN.—The correspondent of the Baltimore American, writing of the loss of the Weenawken, says:

"In extension of the officer in charge of the Weenawken (who is highly esteemed in the navy as a competent and maritimous officer) it may be said that a disaster happening in this way, and from such causes, was hardly conjectured, by even the most experienced in the management of our monitors. The temptation to keep the hatch plate off even in rough weather is very strong, and the disaster will be a warning (an exceedingly costly one though) against such practices in the future. The Weenawken had lately been thoroughly repaired, and had a new gun placed in her turret, and was in perfect fighting condition. She has been one of the most successful of our monitors. Under her first commander, 'fighting John Rogers,' she led in Admiral Dupont's attack on Camden the 7th of April. At Warsaw Sound she was shot to her launch by the capture of the rebel iron-clad Atlanta. Her latest achievement was the explosion of the rebel magazine at Moultrie, while she laid ground of Cummings' Point. In nearly all the engagements here she has borne a prominent part, and her armor everywhere bore the impress of hostile shot."

PERFERENCE OF MIND.—James Darling of Lafayette, Ind., met with a thrilling adventure one day last week. He had been away on business, and returning on foot had reached the middle of the river bridge above that city, when he was startled by the sound of an approaching train. He saw the crossing was slippery and insecure.
To run he dared not; to jump was certain death; and with wonderful presence of mind he locked his arms around one of the ties, and swinging off between the rails, he hung suspended in mid air until the train had passed over. Mr. Darling righted himself and went home, but the shock to his nervous system prostrated him.

DELUS CLARK died on Thursday night of injuries received on the Prairie du Chien road last Wednesday. His remains are to be taken, for interment, to San Francisco, where his mother and sister reside. The friend who Mr. Clark at the time of the accident informs us that he was running a new engine out for use upon the Western Division of the road. When near the scene of the accident an unusual noise was heard, proceeding from under the engine.
Mr. Clark stepped down upon the lower stairs to learn the cause of the noise, when his head came in contact with the timbers of a bridge, fracturing his skull in a shocking manner. He was a young man of excellent reputation, and the main support of his mother and sister.—Mil. Sentinel.

Assertions having been made that Gen.
Hooker was lately criticized a thousand miles in sight at Bridgeport, Ga., it may be well to state that in the late campaign Gen. Hooker's command fought four battles, besides several skirmishes, captured over two thirds of all the prisoners, arms and camp equipment taken, and seven pieces of artillery, with a total loss not exceeding one thousand men.

BIG FISH.—Young Earl Gordon caught a pickered which weighed 15 1/2 pounds, last Monday. This we believe is the largest one hooked out this season, though in years past 20-pounders were not unusual.
Beaver Dam Citizen.

THE EIGHTH WISCONSIN.—A correspondent of the Chicago Journal, writing from Lanc, Illinois, says:

Being a citizen of the Badger State, I was this morning interested in the relation of an incident or two of one of our Wisconsin regiments. It left the state with a live eagle perched under the standard. The bird has followed the heroes through the stirring scenes of their battle-history, never flagging in the weary march or flinching in the storm of the conflict. A man is detailed to bear the perch of the "child of the sun," and when the column halts the shaft is planted in the ground, and the eagle mingles with his "companions in arms."

At the roll of the drum he "falls in" or rather up—to his place. So, day by day, in marching and in storm, in battle and in bivouac, the "Live Eagle Regiment" moves on. In action, the eagle takes wing and bores over his regiment. At Champion Hills, a terrible struggle, the gallant regiment was sorely pressed, and the iron hail poured down upon the heroes like a tempest. The eagle took wing. Up—up—he soared above the smoke of the battle, his screaming piercing the roar of the strife and nerving each loyal arm with new strength, and weakening that of the foe.
The latter saw and heard, and recognized an augury of defeat.

"Child of the sun, to thee 'tis given To guard the banner of the free!"

In peace may the winged veteran return from the wars, and find a grateful welcome and an honored grave in our noble state.

The loss at Yorktown by the explosion is estimated at $2,000,000. It was caused by the careless manner in which a stove pipe had been conducted through a floor of the hospital building. Twenty-five persons were wounded, and altogether it was a serious calamity. The officer who had command of the post ought to be instantly dismissed from the service. A few severe examples in the punishment of officers for the neglect of duty would ensure at least a reasonable care in protecting magazines.

GAME.—The present is the most prolific game season ever known in this portion

At an adjourned meeting held at the Court Room, Monday, Dec. 28th, 1893, Alex. Graham, chairman, called the meeting to order, and on motion S. G. Bailey was appointed secretary.

H. S. Conger, chairman of the first ward committee for obtaining subscriptions to the city bounty fund, and Edward McKee, chairman of the third ward committee for same purpose, being present and called for, reported the following subscriptions:

Table with 2 columns: Name, Amount. Lists various donors and their contributions to the city bounty fund.

Most of these subscriptions are now paid in. Two other subscriptions papers were not reported upon.

On motion of J. B. Cassaday, Charles Skelley was also added to the finance committee at large.

On motion of A. Hyatt Smith, the common council of this city were requested to issue script in sums as low as twenty-five dollars, that it may be brought within the reach of a greater number of persons.

On motion, a committee of three was appointed by the chair to procure and circulate handbills in furtherance of the efforts of this meeting. Wm. B. Hawes, R. H. Treat and Chas. Store were appointed said committee.

"One or Two."—We find in the Milwaukee News the following notice of one of our successors. As it is not likely to be colored by any political partiality, but expresses the feeling entertained towards the man, it will be received as a well-deserved tribute to a departing friend:

Left Us.—W. G. Roberts, local editor of The Sentinel, has given up his position in that paper and goes to Janesville to take part in the publication of The Janesville Gazette. We are heartily sorry to lose friend Roberts from among us. A genial writer, a courteous contemporary and a universally esteemed gentleman, we can hardly hope to have his place completely filled. If those Janesvillians do not treat him well, they will show to the world that they cannot appreciate the qualities that go to make up a gentleman and a scholar. We wish friend Roberts a hearty God speed. May his new enterprise meet with the abundant success which his merits deserve. The good wishes of multitudes of warm hearts accompany him, and all will welcome him back to our midst whenever he may favor us with a visit. Our Janesville friends gain what Milwaukee loses. If they appreciate the accession so heartily as we deprecate the loss, "it is well,"—for friend Roberts.

Dr. Sam. Bugh has received a subordinate clerkship in the house of representatives at Washington.

Franklin Blood, of this city, has received a patent for an improvement in gates.

Town of Fulton.—This town voted yesterday to pay a bounty of $200 to volunteers. Only eight were required to fill the quota—14 having previously enlisted.

Bounty Voted in the Town of Rock.—The people of the town of Rock voted yesterday, to pay a bounty of $225 to each volunteer necessary to fill the quota of that town, and also to give the recruit the benefit of the $16 paid by the government for bringing in volunteers—making the whole amount offered by the town $240 for each man. We understand that the money will be paid promptly at the time of enlistment.

The Glass Blowers.—This justly celebrated troupe will give the first of a series of entertainments at Lappin's Hall, this evening. Their little glass engine is a perfect model of skill and beauty, constantly working, to the no small gratification of the audience. Don't fail to visit them this evening.

Off the Track.—The delay in the arrival of the noon train from Chicago was owing to a stock train getting off the track near Barrington, and preventing the passage of the passenger train.

Chas. H. Cornwall, of Ohio, Chief of the Redemption Bureau, was arrested at Washington, on a charge of embezzling various sums of money at different times. The proof of $15,000 thus obtained, was developed by his arrest. His plan of operation was to abstract a certain amount from the mutilated Treasury notes sent in redemption, and then account for them by taking from the notes canceled and ready to be burned, a similar amount and having them canceled.
